WHERE THE GOOSEBERRY GROWS ON THE COAST.

I would skip from the city's rules and laws—From its fashions and forms cut loose—And go where the strawberry grows on its stem—Where the catnip-tree is climbed by the cat—As she chutes for her prey—

The guelder and unsuspecting rat—On the ratten bush with the staff—

Will catch with the staff the swine—And the swine will have the bacon—

At the leeks with joy from house to bough—

On the top of the cowslip-tree;—

And I'll while the partridge drums his drum—And the woodcock chuck's his wood,

And the dog barks the dogwood plum

In the primitive solitude.—

AMERICA FOR AMERICA & AMERICANS

McKINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD

In 1860 William McKinley was burned in effigy in the English manufacturing city of Sheffield, but in 1891 William L. Wilson was dined and wined in London because he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant.

COLONEL JOHN C. WOOD of Mt. Sterling, who was announced as a candidate for Railroad Commissioner before the recent landslide is still in the field. In the absence of any "founding son," the Republicans of Mason should bear Mr. Wood in mind.

WHILE factories are everywhere starting up under the assurance that there will be no more tinkering with the Tariff by mischievous Democracy, wages continue to be cut to fit the conditions of the new Tariff Bill that Democracy has prepared for American working-men.

THE coldest place in the world is Yakutch, Russia. Sometimes the mercury drops to 73 degrees below zero--New Siberia.

Yakutch isn't in a little bit. You just had better be in Jim KEROU's office the morning after the election. The mercury danced the Fisher's Hornpipe 41-44 degrees below Cairo.

ONK of the "economical" strokes of this "economically administered" Democratic Administration is the cessation of work on the official records of the War of the Rebellion. The ninety-fourth volume was issued some months ago, and the chances are that no more will be gotten out until a Republican Congress provides the money.

THOMAS J. YOUNG of Louisville has bought an interest in The Bath County Banner, a Republican paper, and will take charge as editor on the 8th of December. Mr. YOUNG has been a lifelong Democrat, but has made a radical and entire change in his politics. Nor is he the only one who has been brought to a realization of the dangers that threaten under Democratic ideas.

THE Editor of THE LEDGER is probably the only one who regards The Bulletin's comments on the late vote at the Tolgate Precinct as a "slam" at any Democrat. Does the Editor of THE LEDGER believe that the increase of thirty-four in the Republican vote in that Precinct is an honest one?--Bulletin.

Does the Editor of THE LEDGER still insist that the Democratic election officers at the Tolgate Precinct permitted thirty-four illegal Republican votes to be cast? Who's a think it?

FLEMING county Republicans have a nominee to present for the state ticket in the person of Hon. JOHN P. McCARTNEY for Attorney General. His name would not only go to make up a strong ticket, but it would contribute largely to an able one. It will be remembered that two years ago Mr. McCARTNEY was the Republican candidate who opposed THOMAS H. PAYNTER for Congress in this District. During his canvass of that campaign he made an impression that has given him prestige and influence in this section, and a position amongst the prominent Republicans of the state. He is young in years, but one of the most able and successful attorneys in this part of the state. He strongly favored Congressmen-elect PROUD during the recent campaign, and stamped the District in his interest.

"Fleming county hangman," "the stuffed stumped," "a saloon stool-pigeon," are choice expressions of THE PUBLIC LEDGER in referring to the President of the United States nowadays. The Editor of THE P. L. didn't talk that way when he was Postmaster--Bulletin.

Will some one please give MARCH a dose of paroxysm and apoplexy? His little belly continues to ache because TOM PAYNTER and FRANK JONES and BILL BURSELL and GROVER CLEVELAND didn't give him his Postoffice. Well, Brother, we hope you will pull through; and if THE P. L. didn't score GROVE properly it had not developed a genuine case of pigidiosis. THE LEDGER has always felt free to praise or condemn, as the circumstances required.

The ponderous message of President CLEVELAND is before the country. It contains 16,000 words. About the only part of it that is worth considering is the President's statement of the financial condition. The country had already been made aware of the fact that in the income of the Government, as compared with the expenditures, there was a deficit. This was reduced to figures, and the President mentions these for the last fiscal year as $50,000,000, while he also estimates the deficit for the next fiscal year at $20,000,000. Why this discouraging result? Up to the incoming of his Administration there was not a deficit; on the contrary, there was a surplus. The deficit began to show itself when the country, in 1882, decided in favor of the Democratic policy of Free-trade. No Republicans could have written a stronger protest against the policy of his Administration, and his party than has been written by the President himself. It must now be accepted by all good Democrats that GROVER and his gang are incompetent to handle the affairs of Government, for GROVER himself has said it.

WHILE factories are everywhere starting up under the assurance that there will be no more tinkering with the Tariff by mischievous Democracy, wages continue to be cut to fit the conditions of the new Tariff Bill that Democracy has prepared for American working-men.

Last night the frost was on the punkin', and no mistake.

THE POPGUNS.

There Will Be No Tariff Legislation This Session.

The Senate Finance Committee Settled the Question Quickly.

Mr. Voorhees, the Chairman, is understood to have taken strong ground against More Tariff Laws. Mr. Harris would like to see the sugar Schedule Modified.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6. The fate of all tariff legislation, and especially that contemplated in the four so-called "supplements" to the tariff bill, was intended to remedy the error in the alcohol clause of the tariff bill, was practically delayed by the discussion had by the senate finance committee Tuesday morning, and was left to the cut the sugar scheme of the president receiving only casual reference.

Mr. Harris said he would like to see the sugar schedule modified, but is viewed as untenable by the majority of the members of the committee. He could not advocate any step that would reduce the revenues of the government. Mr. Jones was desirous of having the differential sugar duty expunged, but admitted the inability to carry out that desire.

Mr. Voorhees, chairman of the committee, is understood to have taken strong ground against any more tariff legislation this session. He declared himself opposed to any tampering with the present tariff law as it stands. He wanted it to stand and let the people have the chance of testing it.

The republicans were of the same opinion, and said as the democrats had passed the bill, and the party must stand or fall by the legislation, however pernicious it proved to be. It was apparent that any effort to take up the supplemental bills would be the signal for opening the session again, and that the president would be unable to get the bill through the house of the session. A large number of bills, petitions and memorials were presented, most of them of a local character.

Mr. Storer offered a resolution relating the circumstances under which the sugar bounty was cut off after the sugar crop for 1884 was put in. It directed the committee on appropriations to include in the money demanded that the amount sufficient to pay the bounty for the present year. The resolution went over for the present.

Mr. Vest offered an amendment to the rules with a view of cutting off protracted debate in the senate. It provides that no bill may be introduced for more than thirty days. It will be in order for any senator to move to fix a day for the final vote. This motion is to be put without debate or delay and if carried the original question is to be voted on at the earliest possible moment.

At 12:35 p.m. the senate adjourned and the democratic senators went into caucus.

IN CONGRESS.

Time Extended for Board of Engineers to Report on Canal from Toledo to Lake Erie.

Washington, Dec. 6. There were exactly one hundred members on the floor by actual count when the house met at noon Tuesday. The galleries were almost empty. The democratic leaders had decided to let the sugar house bill be voted on before the sugar bill was called to order to plunge immediately into routine business.

On motion of Mr. Storer a resolution extending the time allowed the board of engineers to report on the routes chosen by the state of Ohio under the river and harbor bill was adopted.

Mr. Outwater, from the committee on military affairs, called up a bill for the relief of the legal representatives of arsenic P. Boyd, late of the Eighth Cavalry, who had been disabled in a point of order and he called up the bill for the dedication of the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National park. The bill appropriates $20,000.

Tuesday there were few traces of the confusion attending the opening of congress Monday. The usual dignity and serenity of the chamber were restored, there was the usual scattered and silent attention in the galleries and the members sat in their desks desirous to enter without delay upon the real business of the session. A large number of bills, petitions and memorials were presented, most of them of a local character.

KILLED BY A FIST BLOW.

The Victim and his Assailant Were Identified.

Washington, Dec. 6. John Naughton, aged 24, struck Wm. Buckley, a companion about the same age, a blow with his fist in a Diamond street saloon Tuesday morning which felled him to the floor. The nearly dead man was instant in a few minutes. It is thought his neck was broken though he was taken to the morgue without a medical examination and his assailant was locked up. Both young men had been drinking heavily and it is thought they were refused a drink in a Diamond street saloon. They were quarreling between themselves over the ownership of twenty-five cents. Naughton then struck the fatal blow.

Hanged in Spite of All.

LONDON, Dec. 5. James Canham Read, who was convicted of the murder of his wife, Dennis Canham, on June 21 last, was hanged yesterday morning. He was a married man who had been intimate with the woman he was convicted of killing. The trial attracted considerable attention in England, and Robert Buchanan, great interest in the case and recently wrote a letter advocating a reprieve for the condemned man on the ground that it was not clearly proved that he murdered Florence Dennis.

OBITUARIES.

Washington, Dec. 5. At 5 o'clock Tuesday morning a fire broke out in the Exposition hall, covering three-quarters of a block on Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets and Capitol avenue, and nearly destroyed it, together with the Fine Arts building, picture gallery, and Davenport. The exposition building was partially occupied by the Fifteenth street theater. This is the theater burned out two years ago on Fairmount street.

Wanted to Carry the Mats.

Washington, Dec. 5. The opening of bids for contracts for star and steamboat mail service in Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Missouri will be commenced at the post office department Wednesday. The time for receiving bids expires Tuesday. There are 3,000 routes in these states, covering 47,579 miles, and the number of bids submitted is estimated at 100,000.
